FAIR NOTES -- Messrs, R. W. Falls, P. J. Dempsey and W. K. Davidson bave been appolared a c minimum to excet the Capital Biesele Club at the depart and apport theer to the fair grounds on the occasion of their visit, on the second day, October 1-t.

We call attention to the notice of the Sceretary of the Fair As-ociation of a trot for family driving her-es, gotten up in addition to the ope for ocuary herses, published yesterday. The whole number of locked scalls (27 in number) have been taken, and workmen are now engaged in enclosing thers.

Twelve additional chicken coops have been ordered to accommodate the entries in the poultry department, which will be the finest dis play of fancy poultry ever exhibited in Virginia. The Secretary and his assistants have been engaged all day in receiving goods at the building. It is hoped the ladies will come forward to morrow and make their cours as early as possible. Mordey they will be crowded. In a conversa ion with the Secretary to-day he informs us that he has already retused applications from parties to bug tickets in lots, who want to sell them in this cuy and Washington, and he wants the public to know that tickets are only for sale at Warfield & Hable. Cruel Attempt at Abduction.

A bold affempt at abduction was made at Buffalo, N. Y., on Tursday afternoon, the facts of which have but just exce to light. A young man asmed Charles E Schapler, of Little Falls, N. Y , a telegraph operator, called on the sixteen year old daughter of one of the prominent citizens on the afternoon of Tuesday, while she was attending school, representing that he was employed in ner father's offic ; that her father tai been injured by the fall of a buildies, and same day and at the same bour that the tire- that he was sent by him to being her to him. She accompanied Schuyler to the place where it ered discourteous by the company, and read the | was represented that her father was lying. On entering a reem Setmyler lucked the doer, so zed the young lady, and, telling her of his purpose to keep her a prisoner up i a certain sum of money had been paid, forced her to copy the following part of a letter to her father which he had writter:

"DEAR PAPA: I ask you give this man $500, for uolist he raises that sum within a week be is ruined. He pledges you his worl and honor that it shall be returned to you in tix y days. For this loan he has no security to offer you except myself, whom to has in keeping. He must have this sum immediately within a week. So long as I think you intend to pay this sam just so so long shall I be kindly dealt with, but at

At this point she stopped writing and begged to be released, promising to raise the required sum and bring it to him. On her swearing never to disclose what had happened she was released. Yesterday she told her father what had taken place. Schuyler was arrested last night at a late hour, and this morning he confessed his crime. On his person was found a letter to the father of the young lady, saying in substance that he had his son Wille, aged six years, in custody, and would release him on the pryment of $5,000. If the sum was not fortheoming the child would be drowned. Schuyler was held to bail in $5,000 for trial. The names of a number of children of wealthy residents, with their homes, were also found on

LETTER FROM JUDGE HUGHES-What He Thinks of the McCulloch Bill .- The following important letter from Judge R. W. Hughes was published in the No folk Virginian: "I was one of the very earliest public opponents of the fanding bil of 1871 in the State. My chief LOOKING AFTER THE HABBOR - Mayor objection was to that feature of it which made coupons receivable in taxer. I considered that provision to be subversive of one of the fundamean to express the opinion that it was not an irrepealable contract. The Court of Appeals of Virginia has in one or more decisions, and the Supreme Court of the United States, the decisions of which on this question are law to the State courts, to a long the of cases have settled beyond questi in the law on this subject, and the law is, as stated by Mr. Thom in his letter, to wit: The contract made by the State to reseize the esupons ia all puble du sis ia

v.o able and irrepealable,

"The question of the receivability of the upons has no practical value as long as the evenus of the State are sufficient to support te goversment and the puther schools, and also to pay the esupons.

"The moment that the revenues fall short of this sufficiency, then this ocupen feature intercepts from the treasury the means of supporting the government and the schools, and establishes a preference in favor of the coupons. Then the objection to such a provision becomes not only practical but vita'.

"My owe judgment is, that the revenues of the State will be sufficient under the new law to pay the three classes of claims upon the treasury which have been mentioned, and that in consequence the coupon feature of the cew bill will not be precisally objectionable. In theory, however, it is very edious to me, though the courts have decided it to be vaid and inviola-
